

DVCONNECT

Be heard. Be safe.

Who are we?

DVConnect operates three crisis helplines for those experiencing domestic violence or sexual assault. This includes Queensland's only 24/7 domestic violence crisis telephone service, Womensline. We also co-ordinate the Pets In Crisis Program for pets of families escaping domestic violence.

WOMENSLINE 1800 811 811

24 hours, 7 days. Womensline helps anyone identifying as a woman escape domestic violence. We help with developing a safety plan, emergency transport, safe emergency accommodation, crisis counselling and intervention, as well as safe accommodation for pets.

MENSLINE 1800 600 636

9am - midnight, 7 days. Mensline helps anyone identifying as a male who may be experiencing or using domestic violence. We help with developing a safety plan, emergency transport and accommodation, crisis counselling and intervention, as well as safe accommodation for pets. We also offer help to men using violence in their relationship to permanently change their behaviour.

SEXUAL ASSAULT HELPLINE 1800 010 120

7.30am - 11.30am, 7 days. Our Sexual Assault Helpline is for anyone who has experienced sexual assault or abuse, or anyone concerned about someone they know. Our experienced counsellors explain your options and support you while you decide what to do next.

PETS IN CRISIS

Our Pets In Crisis Program exists to provide safe accommodation, food and vet care for pets whose families are escaping domestic violence. It gives families a chance to find alternative safe accommodation before being reunited with their pet. Call 1800 811 811 to access this service.

Donations

Any donations are very much appreciated. Donating the cost of a cup of coffee can help us. Donations can be made at: www.dvconnect.org/donate-now The below is how your donation can help:

- $20 provides safe accommodation for 1 pet in our Pets In Crisis Program for 1 night
- $50 provides emergency transport for 1 person, for 1 night
- $100 provides emergency accommodation for 1 person, for 1 night
