DVCONNECT
Be heard. Be safe.

“

Thank you for believing me. I didn't know that what happened to me was sexual assault, and I thought it was my fault.”

WHO ARE WE?

DVConnect's Sexual Assault Helpline is Queensland's free, state-wide telephone service, offering telephone crisis counselling, support and referral to adults and young people who have experienced sexual assault or abuse, or for anyone who is concerned someone they know may have been sexually assaulted or abused.

HOW CAN WE HELP?

Experienced telephone counsellors provide a sensitive, non-judgemental service and assess individual situations to help identify the best support options available.

CALL SEXUAL ASSAULT LINE QLD FOR SUPPORT

Sexual assault involves any unwanted or forced sexual contact or behaviour without your informed consent.

Sexual assault and abuse can be perpetrated by all sorts of people in all kinds of settings and against all age groups and genders.

It could be a stranger, an acquaintance, or someone you know well such as a family member, friend, work colleague, teammate, or neighbour.

Rape and sexual assault are never the victim's fault.

Reach out to our helpline for non-judgemental support.
