

Specialist Trauma Counsellor

- Flexible work practices available
- Part time positions – options to work from 2 to 8 shifts per fortnight.
- Mix of shifts including days, evenings & overnights

About the Role

We are currently seeking qualified and highly experienced Counsellors with a passion for trauma informed care. The primary duties of this role are providing telephone and online specialist counselling to clients of the national 1800RESPECT line who have been impacted by domestic and family violence or sexual violence. The position works within an established national framework and requires the highest level of professionalism, ethical behaviour and compassion. This is a 24/7 service and we are currently seeking to fill a variety of shifts - Day, evening and overnight.

About You

Applicants need a minimum of 3 years specialist counselling experience (phone counselling is desirable) supporting clients who have been impacted by domestic, family and/or sexual violence.

Other essential requirements include:

- Tertiary qualifications in Counselling, Social Work, Psychology or related discipline
- Eligible for membership with governing body of profession - AASW, APS, ACA, PACFA
- Demonstrated ability to work within a challenging and demanding (although rewarding) work environment
- Commitment to a 24/7 service and willingness to work a variety of shifts
- Ability to attend 2 weeks training in Brisbane and attend training days/team meetings in Brisbane

About the Organisation

DVConnect delivers a range of services including the state-wide crisis response service that operates 24/7 to meet the safety needs of those living with domestic and family violence anywhere in Queensland. In addition we also offer therapeutic interventions to support people experiencing domestic and family violence and/or sexual violence through a national telephone and web-based service across Australia, under the 1800RESPECT program also operating 24/7.
