

DVCONNECT

Be heard. Be safe.

Who are we?

DVConnect believes every relationship should be free from violence. We operate a range of telephone helplines to help Queenslanders find safe pathways away from domestic, family and sexual violence. We provide crisis counselling, intervention, information and emergency transport and accommodation.

WOMENSLINE 1800 811 811

24 hours, 7 days. Helping Queenslanders identifying as women escape violence. We help develop Safety Plans, organise emergency transport and accommodation, crisis counselling and intervention, as well as safe accommodation for pets.

MENSLINE 1800 600 636

9am - midnight, 7 days. Helping Queenslanders identifying as male escape violence. We help develop Safety Plans, organise emergency transport and accommodation, crisis counselling and intervention. We also offer support to men using violence to help them permanently change their behaviour.

SEXUAL ASSAULT HELPLINE 1800 010 120

7.30am - 11.30am, 7 days. Helping Queenslanders who have experienced sexual assault or abuse, as well as those concerned about someone they know. Our experienced counsellors explain options and provide support throughout the decision making process.

1800RESPECT 1800 737 732

24 hours, 7 days. The National sexual assault and domestic and family violence counselling, information and referral service. It is confidential and is available via online chat and telephone.

PETS IN CRISIS

Our Pets In Crisis program is in partnership with the RSPCA Queensland and exists to care for pets whose families are escaping violence. The program provides food, vet care and safe accommodation for a variety of pets while their families find safe, alternative accommodation. Call 1800 811 811 for details.

WORKPLACE TRAINING

Training within workplaces to help educate Managers on how to identify and respond to employees affected by domestic, family or sexual violence. Assistance with Domestic Violence Policy writing. Call 07 3181 2323.

Connect with us

www.DVConnect.org

 @DVConnect

 @DVConnectQld

 @DVConnectQld